ORAL JUDGMENT

Mr.N.D. Buch, learned advocate appearing on behalf of Mr.N.D. Nanavati for the petitioner has submitted that these petitions are arising out of the interim order passed by the Gujarat Primary Education Tribunal and during the pendency of these petitions, the original applicants – contesting private respondents herein have already withdrawn the applications filed before the Gujarat Primary Education Tribunal and therefore, according to him, the present petitions have become infructuous.

In view of the aforesaid subsequent development and withdrawal of the main applications filed before the Gujarat Education Primary Tribunal, the present petitions are disposed of as having become infructuous. Rule is discharged and the interim relief granted earlier, if any, stands vacated forthwith.
